ALLIANCE CALL FOR JOINT PROJECTS 2017-2018

Deadline: June 30th, 2016

ELIGIBILITY

The Alliance Call for Joint Projects is open to full-time faculty members at Columbia University, École Polytechnique, Sciences Po, and Panthéon-Sorbonne University, in all disciplines.

Projects must be presented jointly by at least one faculty member from Columbia University and one faculty member from any one of the three French institutions. Faculty members who do not have contacts within the network are welcome to seek guidance from the Alliance team to find a partner.

Third parties may be part of the Joint Project team as long as the team includes at least one faculty member from Columbia University and at least one faculty member from any one of the three French institutions.

PROPOSALS MAY INCLUDE

1) JOINT RESEARCH PROJECTS

Thematic doctoral workshops with students and faculty members from both institutions

Joint conferences, seminars

Travel allowances for faculty wishing to spend significant time at a partner institution as part of an ongoing research or collaborative publishing project.

None of the above: if applying teams have ideas that conform to the overall objectives of the Alliance Joint Research Projects Grant.

2) INNOVATIVE CO-TEACHING INITIATIVES

Teaching using digital tools

Teaching mobilizing cognitive positions little used in traditional pedagogy

Any teaching reinventing and challenging traditional methods

Preference will be given to projects aiming to promote sustainable links between departments or schools in the Alliance network.

REVIEW PROCESS

Applications are assessed by external reviewers in their disciplines.

The evaluation will take into account the academic quality of the project and relevance of pedagogical innovation, the relevance of the transatlantic partnership, the coherence and the consistence of the budget, the consistency of the team and its addition to the broader research interest of applicants’ departments and research centers but also the strong potential for further collaboration.
Results will be announced in October 2016.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION

Applications should be sent in English only, to rsvp.allianceprogram@gmail.com, by June 30th, 2016.

PROPOSAL REQUIREMENTS

Cover page including the project title, e-mail, telephone number and affiliation of each principal investigator.

Abstract outlining the joint project in a one-paragraph summary suitable for public reports, publicity materials, and the Alliance website.

Detailed budget (one page) detailing the budget of the joint project with amounts specified by Category (travel, hosting, catering etc.) and a provisional timeline. Please note that the Joint Projects Grant will not cover salaries.

Curriculum vitae of project investigators.

Letter of intent signed by both French and American principal investigators, Columbia University Department Chair and DAAF. The letter can be co-signed and emailed separately (See template on last page of this document).

REQUIREMENTS OF GRANT RECIPIENTS

Project timeline — The first project-related expenses should be incurred within one year of the date of award. All expenses and activities should be incurred within one year from the date of the first expenses.

Progress reports — Recipients must report every six months on the activities to which the grant is being applied and on the progress toward obtaining external support for the project.

Acknowledgement — When recipients receive external grants based on the Alliance seed grant, they are expected to acknowledge the support of the “Alliance Program Joint Projects Grant” in any papers, publications or resumes and to provide the Alliance team with copies of these papers and publications.

Payment of the grant — The grant will only be awarded after submission of original receipts for all expenses. The funds will then be transferred to the concerned departments at Columbia University to process the reimbursement.
