FACULTY EXCHANGES

Created in 2002, the Alliance Program is a transatlantic joint-venture between Columbia University, the Ecole Polytechnique, Sciences Po and Paris Pantheon Sorbonne University. The Alliance Program is pleased to announce the opening of one call for professors seeking short-term Visiting Professor positions at Paris Pantheon Sorbonne University. Visits are one-week to one month-long and take place during the academic year 2016-2017.

CONDITIONS

Paris Pantheon Sorbonne University welcomes professors from partner universities around the world for one-month visits during the academic year 2016-2017, between October, 1st and April, 30th.

The visiting position is open to Columbia full-time officers of instruction of professorial rank, who work in fields relevant to Paris Pantheon Sorbonne University (see website: http://www.univ-paris1.fr).

The visiting professor is required to teach a mini course and lecture (2h30/week). The course / lecture can be given in English or in French. Paris Pantheon Sorbonne University will cover flight expenses and provide a per diem of 150Euros/day to cover the living expenses.

APPLICATION

Each application should be sponsored by a professor at Paris Pantheon Sorbonne University, who should fill the application form attached (in French) on behalf of the Columbia applicant.

Faculty who don’t already work with colleagues at Paris Pantheon Sorbonne University should contact the Alliance Program to identify the best contact point.

Applications should include a resume and a proposal (one-page) for the mini-course and lecture.

Application materials should be sent electronically to coopinter@univ-paris1.fr and cc Pascal_de_Vareilles-Sommieres by March 29, 2016

Results will be announced by the beginning of May 2016
