ALLIANCE VISITING PROFESSORSHIP
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY — PARIS 1 PANTHEON SORBONNE
ONE SEMESTER IN NEW YORK OR IN PARIS

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS - ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-2021

Deadline - June 21st 2019

Faculty Exchanges

The Alliance Program is calling for applications for visiting professors to Columbia University and Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne. In the academic year 2020-2021, two positions will be offered:

One faculty member of Columbia University will be selected to spend one semester as a visiting professor at Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, and one faculty member of the Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne will be selected to spend one semester as a visiting professor at Columbia University.

Requirements

- Applicants must be current faculty members of either Columbia University or Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne. For Columbia faculty members, the visiting professorship program is open to full-time officers of instruction in a professorial rank.
- When applicable, Alliance Visiting Professors continue to receive their salary from their home institution. An additional compensation for accommodations and living expenses is paid to help cover the costs of the visit. The host university is not responsible for accommodation arrangements for the visiting faculty. The additional compensation varies according to the seniority of the faculty member. Please note that, for visiting faculty going to France, French law does not allow the payment of an additional compensation to faculty members over the age of 65.
- Alliance Visiting faculty are expected to teach one full course (14 two-hour sessions per semester/4 months) at the host institution.
- They are also expected to deliver two academic lectures or seminar presentations, and to attend two dinners or events hosted by the Alliance Program.

Application

- Applications should be discussed with a faculty member at the host institution to agree on the content of the proposed courses and their fit within the department's course offer
- Applications should include:
  - A statement of interest, including expected benefits for both institutions and potential long-term impact (student exchange opportunities, joint publications, joint research funding applications, development of dual degree programs) - A selection of proposed courses and short descriptions of their content - Preferred term for residence and teaching at the partner institution.
  - A full CV, including list of publications
  - A letter of invitation from the department or the faculty member sponsoring your visit
- Applications should include the name of a faculty member or administrative contact at the host institution
- Applications should be sent electronically to alliance@columbia.edu by June 21, 2019.
